

Portales High School News
Week of November 3 – November 7
From Counseling & Guidance Office

Portales High School Basketball Season To Begin Monday

The 2008-2009 PHS boys & girls basketball season officially begins this week. Varsity, Junior Varsity & Freshman squads start practices & workouts Monday, November 3. The PHS Varsity & Junior Varsity Boys open up the season against Roswell High School on Tuesday, December 9 in Roswell. The Varsity & Junior Varsity Girls open the season against Clovis here at Portales Tuesday, November 25.

Green & Silver Senior Preview Day Scheduled at ENMU

PHS Seniors interested in learning more about Eastern New Mexico University's academic course offerings, touring the campus & residence halls, as well as the opportunity to meet faculty & students, are invited to ENMU Green & Silver View on ENMU Senior Preview Day, Saturday, November 8. Check-in is 8:45-9:15 at the Campus Union Building. Students can register on-line at www.enmu.edu/srpreviewday. Students and parents may also contact Stephanie McClary with ENMU Enrollment Services at (575)562-2178.

Portales High School To Present Drama/Theater Production

The PHS Performing Arts Center cordially invites the Community of Portales to their presentation of: "Peter Pan and Wendy" Adapted by Doug Rand from the Novel by JM Berry. Performances for this production will be Friday, November 21 at 7:00 PM, Saturday, November 22 at 7:00 PM, & Sunday, November 23 at 2:00 PM. Tickets in advance are $3.00 and $5.00 at the door. Please call (575) 356-7015 to reserve your seat.

New book available at PHS Library/Media Center:

THE DISAPPEARED (Los Desaparecidos) is the name given to those who opposed Argentina's dictatorial government and were kidnapped to ensure their silence. Silva, the main character, is in the center of a political nightmare. Her brother is kidnapped, and she plans to save him. Her plan is to make the son of the general who arrests those who opposed the government, fall in love with her hoping that his father will set her brother free. Will Silvia's plan work to reunite her family—or will both her and her brother be lost forever? Read the book to find out.